

FOUND DEAD IN HIS CHAIR

John Tyner, Aged Carriage Blacksmith, Passes to the Great Beyond

FAMILIAR CHARACTER HERE

Died While His Couch Was Being Prepared by Good Samaritans

John Tyner, aged 63 years, died this morning about ten o'clock in an arm chair in the small room he made his home in the rear of the Grand hotel.

He had been ill for about two weeks with flux, but his friends did not consider that his illness was of a serious nature.

This morning two good Samaritans in the persons of John Bell and John Caulfield went to Tyner's room to arrange things in a more comfortable manner. They lifted the ill man from his bed and placed him in a chair, while they carried his mattress to a point near the hitch-rack to re-stuff it. On their return they were shocked to find the man dead, sitting in an upright position in the old hickory rocker.

His brother, Edward Tyner was notified and the remains removed to the Grand hotel and prepared for burial.

Deceased was an old carriage blacksmith, but for the past few years, has been unable to work at his trade. He was a good natured individual and preferred to live as he died, alone in modest quarters. His father John Tyner, was the first Irishman that ever resided in Rushville, coming here about sixty years ago, driving into town in an old fashioned cart with his wife, two children and a few household effects.

For many years the Tyners lived on West Second street, in the rear of the Davis livery barn.

Deceased is survived by three brothers, Edward Tyner, of this city, Patrick Tyner, of Richmond, and Thomas Tyner, of Marion, Ohio. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

GRAND AND PETIT JURY DRAWN TODAY

Made up of Representative Men of Each Township in the County

Jury Commissioner Rush Budd and County Clerk Posey drew the names of the Grand and Petit jurors yesterday.

The Grand jury consists of the following men: H. G. Stager, Posey township; J. S. Hayes, Washington; F. M. Crist, Noble; F. E. Catt, Posey; William Sliger, Orange; R. W. Alexander, Posey; W. D. Green, Orange; D. W. Newsom, Ripley; Charles Owen, Orange; Thomas A. Jones, Walker; James Hardwick, Orange; R. S. Hollowell, Center township.

The Petit jurors are composed of the following men: T. J. Humes, Rushville; H. W. Beckner, Posey; Oscar Applegate, Noble; Walter Leoney, Union; Sam. L. Newhouse Jackson; and O. J. Cook, of Richland.

The present Grand jury will probably have a strenuous session, as questions of great import will likely be laid before them.

—Mrs. A. J. Shelby and daughters, Misses Joy and Madge, of Lebanon, are guests of Mrs. Sarah Ball, North Jackson street.

—Miss Ada Jacques has returned from Owensville, and resumed her position with Miss Sue Gregg.

SIDEWALK CONTROVERSY

Glenwood Parties Will Settle it in Court

Trouble which grew out of the sidewalk improvement ordinance at Glenwood will be settled in the next term of Fayette court circuit. Lottie Reece claims $100 damages for the opening of a street in which her lot is situated and John Holmes $150.

In the appraisement of the two lots it was found that they were benefited more than they were damaged. John Holmes' lot was damaged $9.38 and benefited $21. The damage in the lot belonging to Lottie Reece were $11.35 and the benefit placed at $13.20. Neither party, however, were satisfied, hence the appeal.

MUST CARE FOR THE GAS PIPES

Employees on Sewer Trenches
Exercise Precaution Against Accident

EXPLOSIONS MAY FOLLOW

If Service Gas Pipes are Damaged in the Work of Excavation

It is well that extreme caution be exercised in digging the trenches for the sewers in more ways than one. Some of the gas companies fear that their service pipes may be accidentally damaged by the workmen, especially when the trench is first opened by plowing, for often times a pipe is broken and a small amount of gas allowed to escape.

If the workmen are not aware of the damage—which often times they are not—the gas accumulates and follows either the sewer pipes or the gas mains until it finds an opening. In many cases this opening is found along service pipes leading to cellars, and as a result many number of buildings have been blown up, as was the case in Greensburg some few months ago, when several buildings were wrecked and a number of people injured.

Digging trenches in a gas town is no child's play, and it behooves all who are employed, both workmen and officials, to keep a sharp lookout for accidents to the gas pipes.

WANTS TRI KAPPA'S TO CO-OPERATE

Street Commissioner Greenlee
Would Establish Waste Paper
Boxes on Street Corners

Street Commissioner T. M. Greenlee, the apostle of clean streets, whose motto is "Cleanliness is next to Godliness," is making an effort to get the business men and citizens of this city interested in placing at the prominent street corners depository boxes in which old newspapers and other trash may be thrown, as it is in larger cities.

This is a good idea and one which would add much to the beauty and health of our city, if it is put into execution. The Tri Kappa sorority will probably assist Mr. Greenlee in establishing boxes to further the appearance of the City Beautiful.

—Mrs. Roy Aldridge, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Wilson, of West Second street, returned to her home in Indianapolis this evening.

ANDERSON WAS EASILY PLEASED

Veteran Colored Drayman
Smiles For the First
Time in 72 Years

BRUDDER PAYNE NOTES IT

Tries to Learn From What Source
Came the Smile That Won't Come off

There are few residents of this city, who are not acquainted with the familiar eccentric character, George Anderson, the veteran colored drayman. Every morning he takes his stand at the side of Casady & Cox's store shoe, with old Dobbin loose reined, and for years day in and day out, the old man has been promptly at his post, in fair and in stormy weather.

Aside from his regular draying he depends on odd jobs, mostly the hauling away of debris for a livelihood. For hours he will sit and look down at his horse, never making a move, save to brush away a fly, and no matter what occurs he seldom turns his head to the left or to the right. He is of a taciturn "turn," never speaking to anyone unless spoken to, and then his only reply is usually a grunt. His horse is a trained animal, and when the court house clock strikes six and twelve he pulls out from shore like a mud boat, and makes for his evening collation.

But George was all smiles yesterday. It was worth a great deal to see George smile after all these long years of wearing a "solemn" countenance. Something was wrong. (Or rather, something was righted, that prompted George to skin back his storm front lips and show his ivorys.) Many people noted George's happiness standing out in base relief on his wrinkled face. But it remained for George Payne—another drakey of the old school—to call attention to it. Payne came along carrying a bucket of water on his head and one in each hand, and seeing the smile spreading on his old stoic friend, stopped to learn the "wherefore." George I. refused to be catechised. At least he would give no answer and he kept right on smiling. Payne set down his water, and tried to interest a passerby with the "Smiling George."

"Look, look, look, look at dat der man 'spoin dose white teeth. Shu—shu—surely he's gwine to take fah himself a lady friend," said Payne loud enough for Anderson to hear, but the only sign of life the latter displayed was to first scratch his whiskers and then his body in several places.

"Dat, dat, dat dere ole man has sure got seem rabbits. Some of does dat cum from de army," said Payne thinking he would "sting" the darkey who was apparently happy for once in his life. Payne walked away. Anderson turned to a fellow standing on the sidewalk, and for the first time in his career made an after dinner speech. He has a peculiar manner of delivery. He speaks in parables, grunts and spots. Just sort of chunks his talk off like the opening strains of a Beethoven march-tempo. Anderson said—as near as the court stenographer could follow him:

"He don't know nuffin. He, he, don't know how old he is,—an' neither do old Mistah Carter or any of dese olund folks. I knows how old I am. I've got mah age right heah in mah pocket." And he affectionately patted a pocket in his old coat. That was the extend of the inaffable darkey's remarks. But it was a clue. George does not talk often and when he does it is dollars to doughnuts that he is saying something.

A few inquiries brought out the fact that Anderson did not know his age until yesterday. Having fought in the civil war on the Union side, he was persuaded some time since to apply for an increase in his pension of from $12 to $20 monthly. To do this was necessary to know his age. And to learn his age it was necessary to find his old master in slavery. Anderson was a slave born in old Virginia, his owner's name was Ascock, who held fifty slaves. When slavery was abolished Ascock became bankrupt, and left the State. A son of the old slave owner was located in Carrollton, Kentucky last week, and from an old family ledger (the slaves were listed as merchandise) he found Anderson's birth recorded, and sent on the desired information. George is 72 years of age, and was of a family of eighteen children.

It would be difficult to measure the old man's joy and happiness when he learned his age. It evidently meant a great deal to him. And then there was an added pleasure of superiority in the fact that neither "Bruder Carter or Payne knew how old they are."

INJURED ENROUTE TO RUSHVILLE

Occupants of Buggy Thrown Out—Horse Frightens at Automobile

Two women from Matthews were seriously injured in a runaway on the Mt. Summit pike Monday morning at 11 o'clock, says the New Castle Courier. The accident occurred near the farm of W. V. Collins. The injured women were Mrs. Joseph Anderson and her sister-in-law, Mary Shaw. They were enroute to Rushville for a visit with relatives. The horse scared at an automobile driven by Attorney Shaw, of Muncie, who was accompanied by his wife and daughter. The occupants of the buggy were thrown out and the buggy badly damaged. Mrs. Anderson's left arm was broken, her face cut and bruised and one hip badly hurt. Miss Shaw was painfully bruised.

Attorney Shaw seemed to think that he was free from all blame for the affair and he may be, but he gave no assistance whatever to the injured parties. He told them, however, that he would make an effort to see them tomorrow. Mrs. Anderson and Miss Shaw are at the Collins home and will remain there until able to resume their drive or return to their homes.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MINERVA STIERS

Were Attended by a Large Number of Relatives and Friends

The funeral services of Mrs. Minerva Stiers, who died at her home in New Salem, Sunday evening were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the M. E. church in New Salem, conducted by Rev. Hetrick. After the funeral services which were attended by a large number of relatives and friends, the remains were brought to this city and interment was made at East Hill cemetery.

THREE NEW CASES FILED

Two Cases Filed Against the Town of Glenwood

Three cases were filed in the circuit court yesterday. Two are against the incorporated town of Glenwood, filed separately by O. J. Murphy and Martha A. Dent, for action on remonstrance. The other case on the entry docket is that of the James & Meyer Buggy Company vs. Louis Neutzenhelzer on contract in which the company demand seventy-five dollars.

Beginning next Sunday the services at St. Mary's Catholic church will be held at 8 and 10 a. m., until further notice.

The teachers, officers and others interested will meet tonight at the parlors of the Main Street Christian church to plan for the coming Sunday school campaign.

HOUSE STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Home of Elijah Wolfe Was Damaged During Storm
This Morning

OCCUPANTS WERE DAZED

House Was Built of Brick and Luckily Did Not Catch on Fire

During the electrical storm of the early morning hour, lightning struck the home of Elijah Wolfe, of West Third street, and great excitement prevailed in that section of the city for a while. Mr. Wolfe and little daughter were yet in bed when the bolt came and were almost thrown from their beds, and were dazed for several minutes. Mrs. Wolfe was preparing breakfast and did not receive so much of the shock.

The building in which Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe live is a brick, which was damaged quite a little as a part of the southeast corner was torn away and about half the chimney was knocked off.

Several residents, living near by, felt the effects of the shock, but no other damage was done, however. Mr. Wolfe is an employee in a furniture factory and was able to go to work. In all probability the house would have caught on fire had it been erected of wood, and thus make the damage much heavier.

THE STAKE RACES BRING MANY SPEEDING HORSES

The county fair will open in full blast tomorrow and Thursday and Friday will be the big days as usual. Many good exhibits are now at the grounds and the fair this season promises to be a good one. The racing will be exceptionally good, as the stake races have brought many fast horses here this year.

MATCHES IN THE MAIL

Souvenir Cards are Causing
Some Trouble

New types of souvenir postal cards are causing the postoffice department much trouble, according to word received at the local postoffice. The new cards have attached to them a cigar band, a cigarette and a match, carrying with them the injunction to "smoke up." The cigar bands and the cigarettes are permissible, but the match is a contraband, as there is some danger in their transportation. The stamping machines often times cause them to ignite.

SAY WHEAT NOT HELD FOR RAISE

Local Farmers Do Not Appear to be in the "Trust"

QUALITY OF THE WHEAT

It is Improving, But Late Ripening Has Resulted in Small Grain

Probably some Rush county farmers are holding their wheat for higher prices in accordance with the concerted plan of the American Society of Equity, but the millers here, and in fact all through this section of the State are not suffering from a dearth of material from which to grind out flour.

"There has been a marked improvement in the quality of wheat that is being received within the past week," said a local buyer. "Of course there is still some offered that must be cleaned before it can be taken, but on the whole the condition of the wheat now being delivered to local mills is very fair. It has one peculiar feature, however, that most people would never dream of. It will take several pounds more of wheat this year to make a barrel of flour than it usually does. This is due to the fact that the late ripening of wheat did not permit the grains to fill out properly. The bran which comes from the outer covering, is a trifle thicker than ordinary, too. The grains on the whole, therefore, are not so heavily laden with the flour making products as generally results—therefore, more wheat is required to make a given amount of flour than in several years past."

STILL OFFERING LARGE SALARIES

Local Telegraph Operator Received Tempting Proposal
From the Western Union

A local telegraph operator, who answered Supt. I. N. Miller's call for operators, received the following reply today: "Replying to your favor of the 13th inst., we can give you all the work you want at Cincinnati, but of course we cannot grade your salary until you show what you can do. You can work at least fourteen hours per day if you desire, and that would entitle you to three days pay every twenty-four hours. If decide to come, buy a ticket and take a receipt from the ticket agent, and I will reimburse you. We can give you work as long as you want it, or as short a time as you desire."

—Miss Mary Wallace, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Caron, North Perkins street, returned to New Castle this morning.

LYING AT THE POINT OF DEATH

Rev. W. M. Gard Stricken on Train Between Here and Greensburg

RECENTLY WROTE A BOOK

Became Hero During Small-pox
Epidemic in Knightstown a Few Years Ago

Rev. William M. Gard, formerly the pastor of the Knightstown Christian church, and well known in this city, is lying at Alexandria unconscious from the effects of a stroke of paralysis which attacked him while riding on a Big Four train between this city and Greensburg a few days ago, while enroute to his home in Elwood.

Rev. Gard has been afflicted with impaired vision for a number of years, and only a few weeks ago he was stricken with total blindness while preaching in his home town.

The blind minister was born and raised at Beuna Vista, Franklin county, and from poverty he rose to the first rank of evangelists in Indiana.

Recently Rev. Gard was in this city selling a book of his discourses and poems, which he had composed and written.

The name of Rev. Gard became a household word in this community a few years ago because of his heroic work among the smallpox victims when the dread disease swept over Knightstown and neighboring towns. It was due to his great effort that the suffering were relieved as much as possible.

HORSE IS INJURED IN RUNNING AWAY

Caspar Johnson's Team Scares at Boy on Bicycle Near Reed's Elevator

Yesterday evening, while Caspar Johnson was nearing Reed's elevator with a load of wheat, one of his horses became frightened at a boy who was riding a bicycle, and lunging sideways, the horse got crosswise on the tongue of the wagon, thus frightening the other animal, and the team ran almost a block before they could be stopped.

The horse which had lunged across the wagon tongue, was badly skinned up, but the other escaped without injury. No damage was done to the wagon. The young animal which was injured is one of the best horses in the county.

SQUIRE POE WAS LAID TO REST TODAY

The funeral services of the late Squire Thomas Poe were attended by a large number of friends and relatives. The services were conducted at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Cox, of North Morgan street, conducted by Dr. V. W. Tevis, and under the auspices of the Masonic lodge, of which he was a prominent member.

The services were very impressive, and Rushville lost one of its best citizens when the venerable old man was called to his reward beyond this vale of tears.

Immediately after the funeral services the remains were taken to East Hill cemetery, where the Masonic order paid their last respects to their departed brother.

RUSHVILLE, INDIANA, AUGUST 27, 1907.

That Bryan is the permanent and only Democratic leader, is the view of Secretary Taft, and no one who keeps tabs on the party can fail to reach the same conclusion.

Ex-Senator Warner Miller, of New York, predicts that Fairbanks, Taft or Speaker Cannon will be the next president. The intimation that the party has a fine list of eligibles is correct.

We are disposed to agree with other Indiana Newspapers that are advising ex-Gov. Taylor to keep away from Kentucky if he wants to save his scalp. It is impossible that he could have a fair trial in the Kentucky courts, and it is dollars to doughnuts that if he should go there under the promise of immunity from prosecution he would be assassinated before he could get out of the State again unless the most extraordinary precautions should be taken in good faith for his protection.

Will Caleb Powers be kept a prisoner in law, without a trial? Already he has been deprived of liberty as long as the case of those who take life under mitigating circumstances, though the charge against him is that of accessory. The manner of his several trials shows a conscious weakness on the part of the prosecution. In every case the juries have contained a majority of Goebel Democrats, and in one instance was composed of eleven Goebel Democrats and one alleged Republican, who kept Goebel's portrait hanging over the mantle of his room.

Powers truly says that "the murder of Goebel has been lost sight of to a great extent in the mad desire of his friends to hang some one. The quarrel has come to be a purely political one."

THE WILLING MR. KALSTON

Lebanon Statesman is Diligently Engaged in Squaring Himself.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 27.—Samuel M. Kalston of Lebanon has reentered the race for the Democratic nomination for governor. In fact, it is said now that he never intended to withdraw when he issued his public statement that he was not a candidate and that he would not seek the office. It is reported that he meant only to go far enough to indicate to his wavering friends that he might withdraw if they didn't get busy and make it appear that the office was seeking him. When he appeared among the Democratic editors at French Lick, immediately after the publication of his statement, he was pressed for his reasons for withdrawing. He declared that he had been grossly misrepresented. What he intended to say to the public was that he would not "seek" the office. He made such a fine play on the word "seek" that it was apparent that the Lebanon leader had designs on the office and that he hoped to get it without seeking it. Since his statement that he had withdrawn, it is said he has received more letters than ever urging him to be a candidate, and that unless he changes his mind he will permit the party to "force" him to head the ticket.

The Fourth district promises to provide some excitement for the Democrats of the rest of the state, as it is the understanding now that Representative Joe Cravens of Madison will enter the contest with Lincoln Dixon of North Vernon for the nomination for congress. Both men have a large following and are capable of making a good fight. It is apparent from the action of Cravens and other party leaders in the district that they do not propose that Dixon shall be permitted to peacefully enjoy his congressional seat for more than two terms. Dixon was re-elected last year, and it is said that he feels he should have four terms, the same as Marion Griffith of Vevay. He is laying his lines now to defeat Cravens and the others who think that the place should be passed around. There will be a fight for the district organization that may have a decided bearing on the congressional race. George Pleasant of Vevay is a candidate for re-election as district chairman, and Senator Carl Wood of Seymour is a candidate. Wood is friendly to Cravens and Dixon, but is believed to be closer to Cravens. Pleasant, on the other hand, is said to be Dixon's friend. It would not be surprising if the race for con-

Many of the people who have been bounding me have forgotten the circumstances connected with the killing.

Beyond doubt the Republicans of Kentucky carried the State in the election of 1899. The Republican State officers were installed in office. But the new Legislature, led by Goebel, a member of the State Senate, under the forms of what was called the Goebel law, a sure thing device by which the Legislature was made greater than the ballot, proceeded to count the Republicans out and count the Democrats in, with Goebel as governor. Hundreds of protesting voters flocked to Frankfort. Some one of them, in all probability, fired the tragic shot, though Goebel had bitter enemies in his own party. The murderer has never been singled out, though the Legislature offered a reward of $100,000 in the case. Gov. Taylor was driven out of Kentucky, and for seven years has resided in Indiana, whose governor will not honor a requisition for him, holding that Taylor cannot get a fair trial in his own State. Powers' experience proves the truth of this opinion.

The President has assured the country in words that the policy which has made him so popular will be his policy to the end of the term. Of course this assurance was hardly needed for already he has demonstrated by his deeds that he is not disposed to waver from what he believes to be right, but most persons will read these words with pleasure, nevertheless. The pith of it all is that no distinctions are to be made between one class of citizens and another. When great corporations violate the law they will be brought to book so far as possible. They are to have the same consideration as other violators of the law—no more and no less.

The public announcement of Judge Richard Erwin of Decatur that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor is regarded as an indication that Congressman John A. M. Adair of Portland will not seek the place. There has been much speculation as to how the district would line up with both men asking for the gubernatorial nomination. Congressman Adair has been anxious to run, but it has been the understanding that he would not seek the nomination if Judge Erwin asked for the place. Adair will make the race for congress again, and he has strong hopes of being able again to overcome the strong Republican plurality. Judge Erwin will soon begin his canvass for delegates. He says that he believes the paramount state issues next year will be the extravagance of the present administration and the necessity for reduction of expenditures.

A boom for Royal Purcell of Vincennes for the Democratic nomination for congress in the Second district has been started. Mr. Purcell was a member of the state senate four years ago, and is the editor of the leading Democratic paper of his part of the state. His name was presented by the Knox county delegation at the congressional convention last year, but Cyrus E. Davis of Bloomfield had the district lined up before Purcell's friends started. After the convention one of them told Purcell that he didn't get into the race early enough to defeat Davis. He replied through his paper that Davis naturally was first in the field, as he had been a candidate for twenty years. Purcell has a considerable following that is anxious that he shall become a candidate.

Secretary Relley of the Democratic state committee says that the Hon. Ben F. Shiveley of South Bend will be a candidate for congress next year. He predicts that Shiveley will defeat Congressman Abe Brick of District 13. Shiveley ran very close to Brick last year, coming within 300 votes of defeating him. Relley and others say that the Democrats would have elected Shiveley if they hadn't believed the district to be hopelessly Republican. Now they think they have a good chance and they are going into the fight full of courage and confidence.

Frank W. Godings of Illinois, consul at Newcastle, New South Wales, has been transferred to Montevideo.

JOB FOR CONGRESS

Next Session Will Have to Cover Heavy Deficiency In Canal Account.

GOETHALS TO GO AHEAD

Head of Construction Work Has Been Given Full Rein by the President to Continue His Plans.

Despite the Lack of Appropriations There Will Be No Check In Present Progress.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The president has approved Colonel Goethals's request to continue expenditures on the Panama canal in excess of the pro rata monthly allowance for the present fiscal year on account of "present necessities and unforeseen developments since those estimates were submitted." Congress will be asked at the next session to make appropriation to cover this deficiency. Colonel Goethals asked for authority to expend $8,000,000 more than the appropriation, saying it was in the interest of true economy and might save a year's time in completing the canal.

FRANCE PERPLEXED

Political Complications in Morocco Add to Quandary.

Paris, Aug. 27.—An official dispatch received here states that Mulai Hafid, the new sultan of Morocco, with a large force, is marching on Casablanca.

The Spanish colony at Tangier has voted to petition Spain to send additional warships to Tangier on the ground that Spanish citizens there have not sufficient protection.

France's attitude toward Mulai Hafid is, for the moment at least, one of complete nonrecognition of his authority as sultan. It is officially pointed out that although Mulai's power seems to be growing in the south, the people in the north appear to be loyal to the reigning sultan, and until decisive events demonstrate that Mulai is actually the choice of the people France is forced to regard him as a pretender and revolutionist.

A dispatch from Tangier says that the imperial troops are expected to again attack the tribesmen. Reinforcements and further supplies of ammunition have been sent to Caid Mehalla, while General Bagdadi is busy buying up remounts. It is reported that Raul, fearing the rescue of Caid Sir Harry McLean by government forces, has removed his prisoner to Boohashin, east of Knaass.

Mr. Parker's Views.

Portland, Me., Aug. 27.—The address of President Alton B. Parker was the feature of the initial meeting of the thirtieth annual convention of the ALTON B. PARKER.

Comes Back at Small.

New York, Aug. 27.—Superintendent Brooks of the Western Union has made denial of the statements of President Small of the Telegraphers' Union that the Western Union had abolished the double pay system and that half of the working force who had been paid on Friday had failed to report Monday. Mr. Brooks said: "The Western Union has not abolished the double pay. Every man who was paid on Friday reported for work today and the company has all the men it wants. The statement that our officials are working the keys to help break the strike is false."

Navy Department Will Give Fighting Bob Much Latitude on Long Cruise.

ITINERARY OF THE VOYAGE

The Details of This Will Be Left Almost Wholly to Admiral Evans and His Staff.

Some Interesting Points Concerning Plans For One of Greatest Cruises In History.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Acting Secretary Newberry has returned to Washington bringing official word of the conclusions reached at the Oyster Bay conference relative to the projected cruise of the great battleship fleet from the eastern to the western coast of the United States by way of the Straits of Magellan.

It was found expedient to leave to Admiral Evans and his staff the arrangement of the details of the itinerary of the voyage; and to heads of the various naval bureaus the preparations which will make it possible for the great fleet to leave the Atlantic coast in perfect condition for this voyage of 13,772 knots.

It is expected several months will be needed to place the yards on the Pacific coast in readiness for the reception of the battleships, which will certainly be in need of repairs by the time they arrive on the Pacific coast.

Everything will be in readiness for the fleet to sail on Dec. 1, and the date of departure will be between Dec. 1 and 15. As arranged, the itinerary provides for ten knots an hour, which is regarded as the most economic speed for the fleet. This will permit the colliers to accompany the fleet for part of the voyage on the Atlantic side.

Starting with full bunkers the ships will require in addition, 100,504 tons of coal, not counting the coal that will be burned by the torpedo boats, which will be provided by merchants en route. This great supply of coal must be provided by colliers. Four small colliers, the Hannibal, Marcellus, Sterling and Nanshan, carrying 2,200 tons each, will accompany the fleet to Trinidad, and five larger colliers, the Ajax, Alarendra, Brutus, Caesar and Nero, carrying 4,000 tons each, will go as far as Rio Janeiro. It will be necessary to charter twelve additional colliers, and four of these will meet the fleet at Sandy Point, Magellan straits; four at Callao, Peru, and at Magdalena bay, each of the colliers carrying 6,000 tons of coal.

It is the intention of the navy department to buy as much American coal as possible, but in some instances foreign coal will have to be used. The character of the torpedo boats makes it possible for them to coal at regular stations devoted to commercial steamers. The Panther, carrying a full machine shop, and the Culgoa and Glacier, supply ships, will accompany the fleet the entire voyage.

Magdalena bay will be reached about March 9, according to plans, but the itinerary at this point gives ten days additional time. Target practice there will continue for about a month. Some of the battleships will then go to Puget sound and part to San Francisco. Nothing has been settled concerning the return of a part or all of the fleet, and probably will not be settled until sixty days in advance of the actual return.

Will Meet Secretary Taft.

Washington, Aug. 27.—In anticipation of the arrival of Secretary Taft in the Orient, the gunboat Chattanooga has put in at Vladivostok, the eastern terminus of the Trans-Siberian railroad. The object of the visit there, it is supposed at the navy department, is to make sure that it will be possible for the Chattanooga or a vessel of her type to enter the far northern harbor as late as the middle of next November, when Secretary Taft expects to entrain after his Philippine visit for western Europe on his homeward journey.

Compliments of Mr. Bryan.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 27.—William J. Bryan's reply to the speech of Secretary Taft at Columbus, O., was given out last night. Secretary Taft is condemned as a "straddler" on nearly all the important issues and criticised for not taking advanced ground in reform. Mr. Bryan complains, also, that his own position has been misrepresented by the secretary.

Japanese Town Destroyed.

Hokodate, Island of Yezo, Japan, Aug. 27.—Fire broke out in the flimsy native structures of this seaport, and before it could be controlled nearly 70 per cent of the city was in ashes. With the exception of the American, all the consulates were burned. Great distress prevails among the people.

THE WAGES OF SIN

Doubly Tragic Ending of Unholy Liaison Between Two Indiana People.

A TRAGEDY IN A HOTEL

Guilty "Romance" of Charles A. Andrews and India Ethel Blaine Has Bloody Termination at Chicago.

Elkhart Man Shot His Companion, a Flora Woman, and Then Killed Himself.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Charles A. Andrews, a former restaurant owner at Elkhart, Ind., shot and killed India Ethel Blaine of Flora, Ind., in a room at the Saratoga hotel yesterday afternoon and then mortally wounded himself with the same revolver. He died while being taken to a hospital. Andrews and his companion had registered at the hotel last Saturday as Charles Andrews and wife, South Bend, Ind., but after the tragedy the police learned from letters in the man's baggage, that the woman was one with whom he had become infatuated months ago, and because of her had left his wife and son and had traveled about the country with her.

The woman was handsome, with black hair and dark eyes and apparently about thirty years old. The couple, during their stay here, had appeared devoted to each other.

VICTIM OF FIEND

Little Girl Fatally Assaulted by Tramp Near Gary.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 27.—Lizzie, the seven-year-old daughter of William Schrader, an employee of the Pennsylvania company, was attacked and so severely injured by a tramp near here that she died a few minutes later. She told her story to a party of men who found her lying in the road near town.

According to the child's dying statement, she was playing near the outskirts of the town when a tramp approached her, picked her up, covered her mouth with his hand and carried her to a secluded spot near the road.

Leaving his victim, the man fled. The child crawled to the road and several men on their way to Gary found her. One picked her up and all started with her to seek a physician. They had not gone far when the girl slipped listlessly on the shoulder of the man carrying her and she died in his arms.

Angry farmers are in pursuit of the tramp, and it is believed he will be lynched if found. Officers are also on the trail of the brute.

A leash of bloodhounds owned by F. E. Farley, postmaster at Crown Point, under his direction, followed the trail of the murderer for a distance of twelve miles in a northwesterly direction from the scene of the crime. They ran in a winding way through the underbrush until they came to a road a mile east of the Hammond railroad yards, where the scent was lost.

Woman's Fatal Haste.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Berner Parker of Hatfield, Ill., with a child in her arms, boarded a streetcar, and after it had started she discovered that she had left her purse at the home of a friend. In her excitement she jumped from the car, striking on her back, with her infant tightly clasped in her arms, and was removed to the hospital in a dying condition. The conductor tried to prevent her from jumping, and as she jerked loose she left a sleeve of her dress in his grip. Mrs. Annie Trueblood of Canton, Ind., also jumped from a car while it was moving. Her skull struck the pavement and the woman died.

Two Boys and a Gun.

Newcastle, Ind., Aug. 27.—James Dickson, eighteen years old, is dead as a result of bullet wound in the breast, accidentally inflicted by his brother, Oris Dickson, who is sixteen years old. Both young men were handling revolvers, and unknown to Oris, his brother loaded the weapon which he held. Oris playfully pointed the weapon at James, remarking, "Throw up your hands," and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered his breast.

Leaped to His Death.

Indianapolis, Aug. 27.—Peter Lowrey, a patient at the city hospital, wrenched a heavy iron screen from the window on the second floor and plunged headlong to the cement sidewalk twenty-five feet below. He died shortly afterward. Lowrey was admitted to the hospital suffering from delirium tremens.

Coal Chutes Collapsed.

Indianapolis, August 27.—Herbert Mays, a negro barber, was shot and almost instantly killed by Police Sergeant K. A. DeRosette, while resisting arrest and making what Sergeant DeRosette declares were menacing motions with a revolver.

FOUND AT SANDUSKY

Missing Indianapolis Girl Tells a Strange Story.

Sandusky, O., Aug. 27.—A strange story was told the police last evening by Mabel Kirk, eleven years old, who was found at a local pleasure resort. The child says a strange woman called at her home, 2626 LaSalle street, Indianapolis, last Thursday, and told her to dress immediately, as her father, William Kirk, wanted her to accompany him to Sandusky. The girl says the woman bought her a ticket and placed her on a train, saying her father was in the smoking car. Remaining on the train until Sandusky was reached without seeing her father, the girl proceeded to the resort, where she says she slept under the board walk along the beach three nights and during that time had but an apple and a sandwich to eat. Her father has been notified.

The Indianapolis End.

Indianapolis, Aug. 27.—A local paper last evening said: "The police are searching the city for Mabel Kirk, the twelve-year-old daughter of Joseph H. Kirk, 2726 LaSalle street, who mysteriously disappeared from her home a week ago and has not returned. The little girl took with her $30 belonging to her father. Several persons who know her have seen her around the city during the last twenty-four hours, but the clues given the police have not brought results. Her parents say they cannot explain her action."

Big Asphalt Company Gets a Touch of Venezuelan Justice.

Caracas, Aug. 27.—Three years after the beginning of the sensational trial of the New York & Bermudez Asphalt company for complicity in the Matos revolution, judgment was rendered against the defendant company, it being condemned not only to pay $5,000,000 damages, the calculated cost to the government of subduing the revolution, but was to pay other sums to be fixed by a commission of experts and which may very likely amount to $10,000,000 more.

The present judgment is appealable to the supreme court, and from there to the court of cassation.

PUBLIC BENEFITED

Some of the Advantages Which Accrue to the People by Reason of New Law.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION

Action of Republican Majority in Enlarging the Powers of This Body Has Been Shown to Have Been Prompted by Prudence and Far-Seeing Judgment.

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 27.—Without knowing it the public is being greatly benefited by the laws enacted by the recent legislature giving the railroad commission more authority over railroads and traction lines. Travel is being made safer—just how much no one not intimately informed of the operation of the commission knows, but it can be stated definitely that the commission, aided by the laws enacted by a Republican legislature, is bringing the roads up to such a high standard that it is a certainty that accidents will grow fewer and fewer from now on.

Inspectors Are Busy.

Under one of the new laws the commission has appointed inspectors whose duties are numerous. For instance, they examine all the bridges along a certain line and then make a report to the commission. If anything is wrong the commission calls in the superintendent of the road and instructs him to make the needed repairs.

Again, the inspectors may be sent to examine all of the stations to see about the sanitary conditions. If the latter are bad then the commission orders the road to make them good.

An inspector may be sent to examine the rolling stock to see if it is in dangerous condition. His report must be thorough, so that the commission can take whatever steps are necessary to remedy the defects. Perhaps hundreds of lives are saved in this manner alone, as many trains are wrecked because of faulty equipment.

Inspectors are being called on to examine the tracks to learn whether or not they are fit for the traffic they bear; whether or not the rails are heavy enough. In fact, there are hundreds of things that the commission is looking into. Inspectors are making a thorough report on every system in the state. The railroad men themselves appreciate what is being done to make the roads safer for the public and very frequently they aid in the inspection.

The commission has employed as inspectors only men whose ripe experience in railroad work makes it possible for them to recognize wherein fault lies and to report it in such a way that the commission will know how to proceed. There is no doubt that under this law the roads will be forced to keep their property in such condition that it will be safer to travel and safer for their employees.

Equal Car Distribution.

Another good law put through by the Republicans is being enforced by the commission, and it is proving of great benefit to shippers. One of its provisions follows:

"Each carrier shall furnish to the applicant in not less than forty-eight hours after 6 o'clock p. m. of the day of filing such application the cars so required, unless the cars are not so soon required, in which case they shall be furnished when required.

The carrier's agent at every station shall record in such book the date the cars were furnished and billed out and such other information as such commission may prescribe in the form of such record, and every such record, or a properly authenticated copy thereof, shall be competent evidence in all courts of the state and before the railroad commission of Indiana concerning matters required to be recorded therein. Any such carrier shall not be required to furnish cars for shipment unless applied for as provided in this section; provided, however, that the distribution and delivery of coal cars to coal mines on such carrier's lines in this state shall not be controlled by the provisions of this section."

The intent of the act is properly to provide for car distribution.

Big Money Saved.

While the Democrats have been howling themselves hoarse about the cost of the railroad commission, they have not said anything about the great work it is doing. Recently it caused the railroads to withhold an order for an increase in freight on grain to the seaboard long enough to permit the Indiana dealers an opportunity to ship at profit. This one act saved the grain men of the state over $100,000. The board is constantly compelling the roads to reduce exorbitant freight rates. It has broken up freight blockades and has enforced the laws enacted for the benefit of the trainmen. Under the new conditions no road in Indiana can raise a rate without permission from the commission, which in itself is sufficient cause for the latter's existence. The commission is pursuing a conservative, business-like policy, that has commended it to everyone save the Democrats, who as usual are decrying anything that the Republicans create for the people's benefit.

NEW SUIT FOR 5c

Any smoker can be suited for 5 cents by going to Hargrove & Mullin's Drug Store and buying a Wadsworth Bros "Chico."

This cigar is not a stogy, a cheroot, or a Porto Rican imitation cigar, but a well made, good size, clear long Havana filler that tastes like tobacco from the first puff right to the end. It smokes free, with a real California perfume fragrance and burns with a solid ash that shows how good a cigar it is.

The "Chico" is warranted to suit any smoker, no matter whether he has been paying 5c., 10c. or a higher price. At any rate it is well worth trying, and Hargrove and Mullin, druggists, want all their smoker friends to get the "Chico's" habit.

For People Who Care

For pains internal or external an immediate relief is always wanted, great care should be taken what is used, a great many liniments are not fit to enter ones stomach but at the same time are recommended for internal use, that is the reason why we manufacture our own, one that we can safely use.

Grey Squirrel Liniment

This can be used in 5 to 30 drop doses and will stop the most severe pains almost immediately. For a lame back, sore joints, swelling or anything of external nature a little rubbed on the parts or a cloth saturated and bound to the parts will work wonders.

Excellent for Soreness, Lame Back, etc.

EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA!

Owing to the rain of last week, it has been decided to continue the Catholic Carnival tonight.

Come out and help swell the the crowd.
